Mrs. McCauley— Teacher, Counselor, Adviser

Throughout this year Mrs. McCauley has devoted much of her time, experience, and patience to this year's annual by acting as its adviser. She has done layouts, written copy and heads, and given many new ideas to those students working on the annual. No matter how busy or tired Mrs. McCauley was, she always found the time to give helpful advice and encouragement to members of annual staff. She was always there and always ready with ideas. Mrs. McCauley has truly worked hard to make this annual represent our school and students. Our dedication of this annual to Mrs. McCauley is only a small way of thanking her for all the help she gave us.

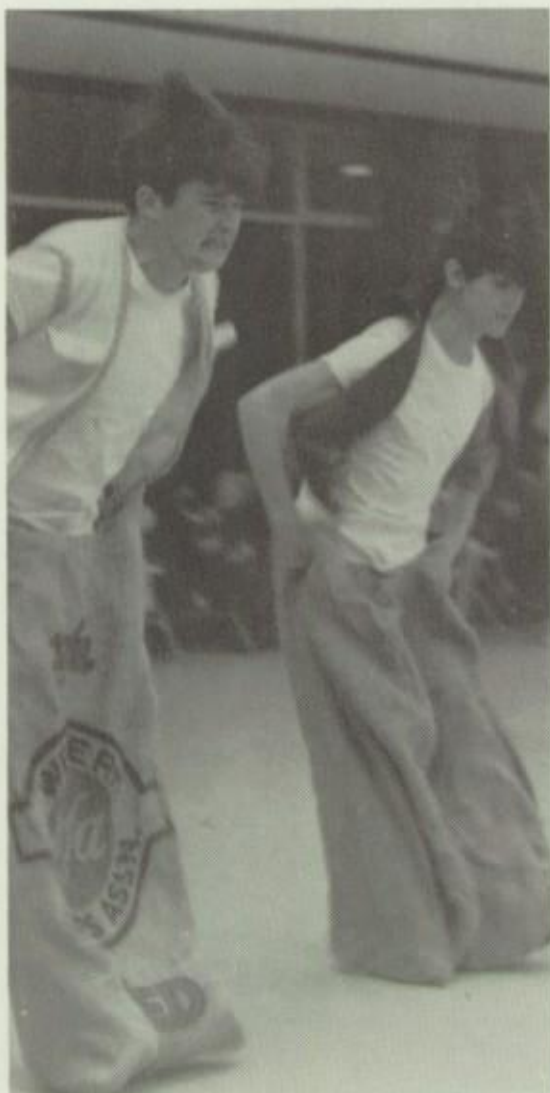

It's a stepping stone to conquer
And your beginning to success.

To the Freshmen it is a large
And rather awesome sphere.
Uncertain excitement to come fills the first entrancing year.

The Sophomore, of himself, is sure
 And dares explore at will.
 Enthusiasm lights his way;
 His world is growing still.

The Junior Class is skyward bound,
Anxious for its goal.
In victories, events, and awards,
Their work will take its toll.

And now the stately Senior stands,
Alone and unafraid
Atop his own and conquered world,
A world which he has made .

His world is filled with memories
Of years in S.U.H.S.
And he stands eager for his flight
To wider realms of success .

Class officers for the Class of '71 were Regan McCoy, Howie Ellefson, Sharon DeGroot, and Susan Hagberg.

Diane Goodwin, Cherese Yates, and Ed Elder can not wait for school to start. They Began registering with Mr. Cameron's help.

Brenda Hamrick was glad her physical was over.

Fall Brings

The mighty Lancers waited for the bus to take them to the game.

Carolyn Frady and Linda Mitts anxiously await their physicals, given to all freshmen early in the school year.

Carole Hall took part in impromptu role playing for drama class. She said that she was supposed to be a chair on which a fat lady was supposed to sit.

Many Activities

Activities of many kinds highlighted those first few beginning weeks of school. Students looked forward to a year of new experiences, friendships, and class schedules.

In spite of modern data processing, there was the usual mass confusion on registration day. There was the standing in line, the uncertainty of being able to get into a required class, and the boring task of filling out endless forms. This process is repeated every year and holds promise of continuing for some time to come.

Besides having to get used to a new building, new teachers, and upper classmen, the freshmen were faced with the problem of physicals. There they sat with expressions of wonderment and fear, breathing loud sighs of relief when it was all over.

At this time of the year, clubs began to seek out the true aspects of school life and the many new, undiscovered phases to come.

One of the first organizations to meet was the yearbook staff. As many as 35 students indicated interest in working on the annual. Cheryl Rambeck, Kalene DeVore, Kathy Fields, Janice Muetzel, Patrice Hannaford, and Susan Osmond are among those who listened to instructions about how to put this year's book together.

Lancers, The Team That Never Quit,

On an independent schedule, the Lancers' football team played both A-1 and A-2 schools. Each game was played with team effort. This continuous effort came to define our boys as "the team that never quit."

Morale was high throughout the season as the Lancers looked forward to challenging the UVL champion. The season ended only in bitter disappointment as the Lancer team was excluded from the playoff game.

At a fall sports assembly, awards were given to outstanding players on the Lancer team. Most Inspirational Player was Gary Martin. He also received the award for the Most Valuable Player. Wayne VanEpps received the award for the Most Improved Player during the football season. Co-captains for the year were Mike Fisher and Gary Martin.

As the crowd watched, Gary Martin lead the team onto the field after half-time of the Homecoming game.

The junior varsity cheerleaders brightened the football season with their cheery smiles and never ending enthusiasm.

Their spirit continued through the basketball season in which they cheered for the sophomore and J.V. teams.

Thank you, girls. A job well done!

One of the yells presented by the J.V.'s contained this semi-Pyramid.

In an effort to create more school spirit at SUHS, the Freshmen cheerleaders, always cheerful and energetic, yelled through all the games and pep assemblies.

Cross Country Team

The seven-man team went to state with their coach, Joe Cox. The many underclassmen who went to state will give strength to next year's cross-country team. Those going to state were Gary Edwards, Joe Janko, Larry Maddux, Chris Dowd, Jack See, Larry Jack, and Calvin Poncho.

Chris Dowd runs the cross country course up the hill east of the high school. His practice paid off, for he placed first in district and ninth in the state meet.

Enters State Meet

Throughout the school, posters backing the teams appeared. Even the chalk boards, one of which is pictured here, encouraged the team to do its best as the cross-country runners took off for the state meet.

Jack See helped the team to its Umpqua Valley League win, placing second in the district meet.

Larry Maddux brought in a third place win for South Umpqua to aid the team in its district win.

The Lancers' cross-country team kept the spirit of winning alive again this year by standing undefeated in their league. The only time the harriers were defeated was when they went out of the league for stiff competition against A-1 schools.

Our boys were the only harriers representing the Umpqua Valley League at state. The boys did an excellent job, taking ninth place. Coached by Joseph Cox, the Lancer harriers through team effort and determination turned out many fine performances during the season.

Chris Dowd was voted by his teammates the most inspirational member on the Lancer cross-country team.

Thanks to our "southern rivals, "S.U.'s second bonfire was even better than the first one.

Time out for cookies and punch for Lonnie Smith, Shelly DeGroodt, Bill Christensen, and Nancy Martin.

Crusade '67 Salutes Alumni

Class competition and spirit ran high during the week before Homecoming as the classes built floats and participated in the various events.

The dress-up activities during the week ranged from the spirit promoting Black and Gold Day to the wild Hippy Day.

Although the bonfire was planned and assembled by the freshmen, Riddle once again participated in the lighting ceremonies. Following the bonfire, was the Girls' League spaghetti feed.

Despite our loss to the Phoenix Pirates, spirit was great as students attended the dance Friday night.

Music for the dance was provided by "Hercules and the Chicken Fat People."

A Great Success!

Cheryl Rambeck, yell queen, and Gary Martin, co-captain of the football team, ruled for the evening at the Homecoming dance which closed the week-long activities. In the royal court were Shelly DeGroodt, Jim Aaronson, Terry Weaver, Gail Gross, Leslie Spencer, and Eddie Mann. Crowning ceremonies were performed by Jim Gross and Malinda Panse.

Homecoming Happiness Manifested Many Ways

Gordon Ethridge and Bob Proctor entertained the student body members during the lunch period on Hippie Day, one of several "days" held preceding the game and dance for students and alumni.

Malinda Panse, Miss Flame from the senior class, which sold the most tickets to the Homecoming game, lit the second bonfire, built by the freshman. The first fire was started by intruders prior to the official ceremonies.

Taking A Hay Ride Holiday

Smile everyone, you're on candid camera!

Hay Ride Holiday was the theme for this year's Twirp Dance. During the week preceding the dance, the students participated in various dress-up days and pre-planned activities. The days were Tag Day, Western Day, Crazy Hat Day, Dress Up Day, and Black and Gold Day.

The dance Saturday night was the climax to the week's activities. At this time, Jimmy Markham and Margo Dalzelle were chosen king and queen of the annual affair.

Music for the dance was provided by the Royal Colony, a local band.

Drama Presents "The Bishop Misbehaves"

Boosting their spirits, while waiting for crooks are Cindy Buhl, Bill Christensen, Randy Simmons.

The play given in the fall was a comedy-mystery about a bishop of the church of England who considered himself an amateur detective. The two scenes from that drama down on this page depict the robbery of the rich couple by the young romantics. The second picture is of the residents of the manse who try to relax as they outwit the criminals, teaching them to live honestly and happily ever after.

Sophomores Win First In Float Competition

Gale Gross and Terry Weaver were chosen as prince and princess for Homecoming.

Sophomores work long and hard to achieve good sportsmanship and school spirit. Some of the Sophomores working on this float are Mike Bare, Valerie Johnson, Pat Murray, Cathy Hammett, Dennis Fowler, Lorraine Maddux, Eben Whiting, Mia Ringen.

Junior class officers for 67-68 school year were (back) Bill Christensen, vice-president; Bill Ankeny, sergeant-at-arms; Bobby Melvin, a sneaky junior; Wayne Van Epps, sergeant-at-arms; (front) Nancy Martin, concessions chairman; Cathy Shirtcliff, secretary; Pam Warren representative; Jim Aaronson, president; and Nancy Hanna, prom chairman. Sue Carpenter, who was secretary, was not pictured.

Many juniors worked hard on money making projects to help make the Jr.-Sr. prom and banquet the success it was.

Seniors Entertain At Frosted Holiday

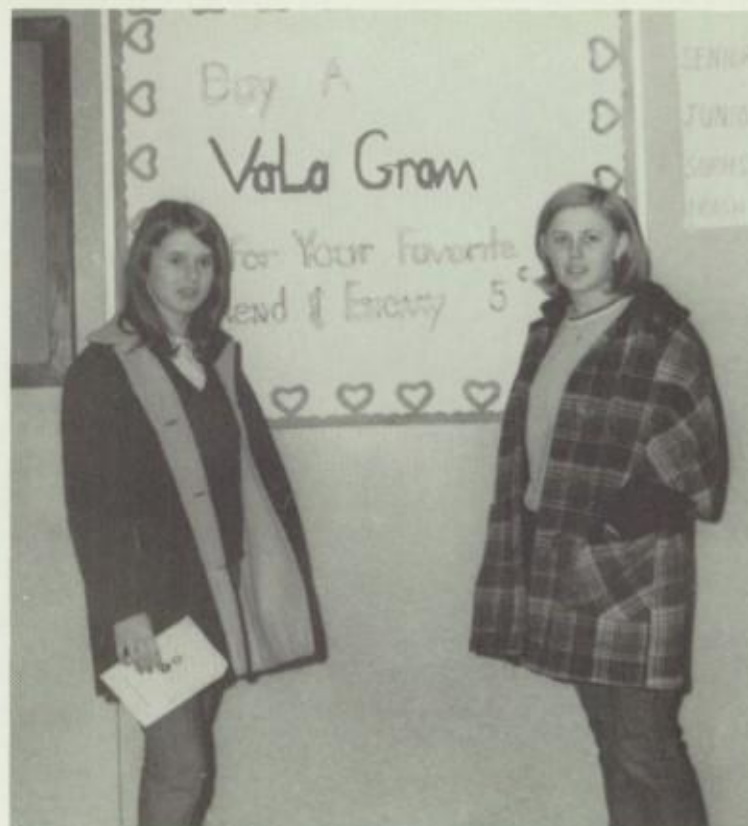

Silver and pink colors dominated the color scheme for the senior-sponsored winter formal held Jan. 6. Ione Wutzke was chairman of the dance. Besides the streamers of crepe paper which formed alcoves for the tables at which the guests were seated, fir trees and boughs were frosted with foam. The windows of the multipurpose room were decorated with pink and silver, which resulted in hours of cleanup for Ione, Carol Ganz, and Sandie Graves.

Robin Caviness was the queen and Chris Dowd the king for the Frosted Holiday senior ball held in January. Gary Martin and Ione Wutzke placed the crowns on the couple's heads. In the court were Steve Peterman, Malinda Panse, Bruce Agee, Judy Pringle, Nancy Richardson, Jim Gross, Marge Hogg and Mike Cyphert.

Art Club Added To Funds

The Art Club was begun this year under the direction of Mrs. Ford, the art teacher. Debbie Smith was the very able president. Her executive board consisted of Glinda Maddux, Linda Booth, Debbie Kibbey, Scharlott Young, and Kit Chase. Besides selling Vala-Grams, the Art Club made posters for the Car Rally and designed a school seal.

Sammy Janssen and Iris Eubanks help display the Art Club's Vala-Grams board. Money raised from this project was donated to the Foreign Exchange Program.

Playing Winkum proved to be great fun at the Bible Club Halloween Party. Gerald Radford, John Lundry, Pat Lundry, and Debbie Kibbey can testify to that.

Basketball '68

The Lancers won the big ones this year, defeating the state champion Sutherlin Bulldogs in one encounter and overpowering the Rogue River team, which was near the top in statewide ratings. The Lancemen also won when they went against Eagle Point. But the Umpqua Valley League play was one of a different kind.

Larry Neis attempts a basketball as an opponent reaches for the ball.

Bob Rowe, team captain, watches his man as the ball rebounds from the backboard.

J.V. Team

As a result of much practice and hard work, the Junior Varsity team had an outstanding season this year. The team won the majority of the games, and spirit was high throughout the year. During the season, members of the team demonstrated improved skills that will be of use next year. Ted Lewandoski was high point man and Ron Phillips was second in points for the season.

Emma Robinson, Shelley De-Groodt, and Cindy Buhl kept records for basketball games.

Malinda Panse and Nancy Richardson were basketball statisticians. Both helped the season a success.

Pep Club

Boosts Spirit

Pep Club started off the season by having practices with the varsity rally to learn new yells.

Under the presidency of Pam Warren, the girls participated in several money-making projects to earn money for their sharp looking sweaters.

These girls yelled enthusiastically for both the football and basketball players.

One of the skits given by the rally dealt with, how to dress a football player; cheerleader style.

The varsity rally worked during the summer on various money making projects. They did take time out, however, to attend rally school in July, where they received two second place ribbons for their yells.

During the year, yells and skits were presented to keep the spirit alive. Along with the other activities that went on, the year was one never to be forgotten.

Kept Matmen Busy

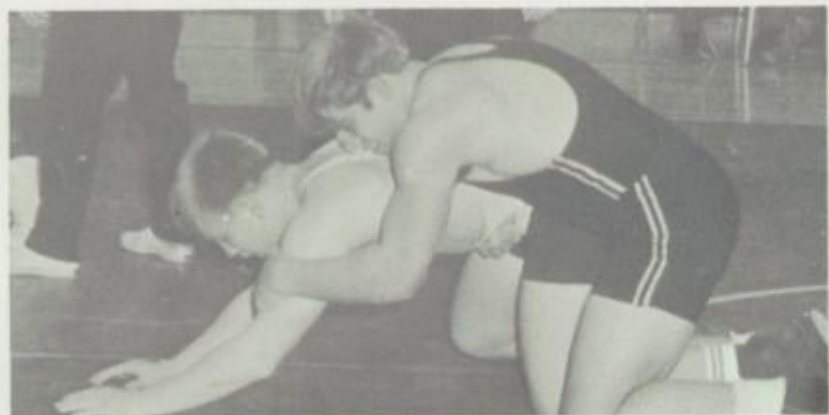

Gary Martin brought home 1ST in district and 2ND in state to become the first South Umpqua wrestler to place in state. During the year he compiled a 27-3 record.

Scott Hogg also got a 1ST in district this year. Although he didn't place at state, he compiled a magnificent 26-3-1 with 24 of these pins.

Ron Morgan helped the team when he came out to fill up the heavyweight spot this year.

Bob Proctor wrestled hard for the team this year, placing 2ND in district to earn a place in the state meet.

Ernie Graf wrestled hard working both the 123 and 130 weight class.

South Umpqua Wrestlers again made a respectable showing this year. The matmen wrestled A-2 and A-1 schools and proved themselves to be stiff competition for their opponents. Greatly improved over last year, the wrestlers had six tournaments compared to none the previous year.

The team placed second at District and sent five men: Gary Martin, Scott Hogg, Tim Robinson, Orville Garren, and Bob Proctor to the State meet. The wrestlers placed 15th at this meet.

At the Spring Sports Banquet, Gary Martin was named Most Valuable Wrestler. Award for the Most Inspirational Wrestler went to Scott Hogg. Sharing the honor of Most Improved Wrestler were Orville Garren and Tim Robinson.

We commend the wrestling team for the good job they did representing our school in all meets and tournaments.

Volleyball and gymnastics were also a part of the winter schedule. For the first time, volleyball was a competitive sport. The gymnastics team performed at the talent show and plans to enter competition next year.

In the spring, softball and track were the featured sports. The softball team was another undefeated team. Kristy Dixon and Cindy Weaver represented SU at the state track meet in Corvallis.

G.A.A. and sports' awards were given at the Awards Assembly held in May.

Home Honors

FHA girls served for banquets and raised money through food concessions at the school's carnival and for other organizations. They made corsages, too. The money earned was to have been used in an overnight trip to a Portland furniture factory and a home for children. When that trip was cancelled, they settled for a visit to the home and travel show and a pizza party.

Future Homemakers Served Their School

Susan Hill, Janice Mitchell, Judy Bell, and Linda Callaway shopped for appliances at the home and travel show.

"You, The Jury" Presente In March By Drama Students And Dramatis Personae

Pam Warren has the base for her makeup applied by Darylin Hoffman, prior to curtain time.

Robert Lonergan, drama teacher and faculty adviser, chose for the cast Pat Lundry, Gary Wallace, Terry Weaver, and Linda Young besides those pictured in a scene from the spring play: Cindy Buhl, Marge Lundry, Jim Aaronson, Sue Gardner, Randy Simmons, Pam Warren, Lynn Herbert, Debbie Rust, John Lundry, and Bill Christensen, who served as the judge for the trial in which justice won after false confessions. Taut nerves were displayed in the three-act drama, all the scenes for which were enacted in the courtroom.

King and queen for the Spring Formal dance held in March were Carol Ganz and Ray Dean, Debbie Rust and Larry Maddux placed the crowns on the couples' heads. Other members of the court were Steven Briggs, Cheryl Wilson, Dick Devin, Patty Janssen, Ted Lewandowski, and Janice Freamon. Not shown are Tom Bay and Dana Hardy.

Spring Fever Came Early

Pastel flowers and butterflies created the mood for the "Spring Fever" dance, which was sponsored by the student council and held in the multi-purpose room and the room was decorated with flowers in spring pastel colors and the tables were decorated with butterfly programs. Hercules And The Chicken Fat People, a Roseburg band, provided the music for the Spring Formal. Carol Ganz was chairman for this year's dance and she was aided by the executive members of student council.

A few of the many attending the dance were Suzie Osmond, Nancy DeVore Blayne Klumph, and Dana Hardy.

Student Council Promoted Projects

The student council was host to Senator Wayne Morse at an all-school assembly. They also sponsored the local Car Rally with Judy Birkenfeld as chairman.

Another project was the Spring Formal, arranged by Carol Ganz and other executive officers.

Student body officers were Tim Powell, president; Larry Maddux, sergeant-at-arms; Jerry Krause, vice-president; Cheryl Rambeck, yell queen; Darylin Hoffman, treasurer; Carol Ganz, secretary; and Marge Lundry, publicity agent.

Sue Mulvane was chairman for raising funds to help bring a foreign exchange student to SUHS for the next school year.

As a stimulant to school spirit Douglas High was challenged to a basketball attendance contest. SU won, so Douglas student council executive officers washed Mr. Johnson's car.

Jerry Krause prepared to pull away from the crowd to win the Douglas County Youth Council car rally for UVL schools. Jerry, with his navigator Tim Powell, brought the engraved hub cap back to display in the trophy case.

Ever ready Coaches Sperling and Rowe boarded the bus as Tim Robinson looked on.

The Lancer Baseball Team came to life early in the spring with several practices which resulted in a good season and the placement of South Umpqua as third in the Umpqua Valley League games.

Turnout for the baseball season was good with approximately 15 boys perfecting their acquired skills and working together to make the season a winning one, leaving South Umpqua with a final standing of four wins and four losses.

At the May Awards Assembly, several players were presented their letters. At this time Bob Rowe was presented the trophy for Best Hitter and the trophy for Most Valuable Player.

Mike Fisher was ready to swing just as the camera clicked.

Sportsmen Thru And Thru

Mr. Trask coached the junior varsity baseball team this year. Members of the team included back row from left: Tom Bay, Rocky Lee, Doug Stevenson, Ted Lewandowski, Ed Rust, Kim Wing, Aaron Clarkson, Gerald Radford, and Eddie Mann. Front row from left: Mgr. Rod Stevenson, Greg Panse, Bob Deaton, Wayne Bailey, Pete Ringen, Tom Hammett, Dan Ward, and Mgr. Brice Dowd.

School Records Broken

Steve Briggs used his style of jumping not only in regular meets, but at the state meet. Steve was also a member of the Lancer relay team that ran in the state meet.

Running the 220 and the 100 yard dash were Terry Bare's specialties. He was always ready with that little extra burst of speed when the finish was near.

Mike Bare used one of the more unique styles of high jumping to add points to the Lancers' scores.

By Cindermen

Mr. Petterson was the head coach for the Lancer track team with Mr. Patterson his assistant. The boys on the team were from top left: Curt Young, Brad Blanchard, Terry Bare, Elvis Tillman, Jim Gross, Jerry Potter, Terry Bare, Wayne VanEpps. Bottom left: Ron Wheeler, Regan McCoy, Jerry Edwards, Larry McFarland, Pat Blanchard, Scotty Hogg, Jim Pierce, Phil Delaney, Rod Maddus, and Rex Maddux.

Approximately 28 boys turned out this season for track and field events. The team had several meets with A-2 schools, and a definite improvement was shown by the participants over last year's season. New skills were acquired through the many practices, and these skills were put to good use when the meets were held.

New varsity records were set this season. Senior Jim Gross set a record for the javelin throw, which covered a distance of 173 feet and 7 inches. Mike Bare, sophomore, set a new record for the high jump. It was 5 feet 11 3/4 inches.

During the May Awards Assembly, Bob Peterman was chosen Most Inspirational. Team member Steve Briggs received a trophy for being High Point Man of the Season. Jim Gross and Steve Briggs shared the trophy for Most Valuable Track Participants.

Coaches Petterson and Patterson were able to take four members to the state meet in Corvallis. Steve Briggs, Bob Peterman, Jerry Potter, and Jim Gross were selected to attend this meet. They participated in the mile relay, and Jim Gross was in the long jump.

The officers of Girls' League were MaLinda Panse, in front, president; Debbie Rust, point chairman; Kristy Dixon, social chairman; Ione Wutzke, historian; Marge Lundry, treasurer; and Shelly DeGroodt, vice-president, seated.

Carole Hall was escorted by Jim Aaronson at the style show, for which dress shops in the area loaned clothing for the girls to wear at one of their monthly meetings.

To Honor Girls

Each month the Girls' League chose one of their members to recognize their activities for the school. In May Sue Mulvane and Robin Caviness were chosen for their leadership; April, Marge Lundry for her reverence to God; March, Kristy Dixon, athletic ability; February, Judy Birkenfeld, efficiency; January, Carol Ganz, school spirit; December, Nancy Richardson, sense of humor; November, Debbie Rust, talent in many areas; and October, Margie Hogg, not pictured, ability to get along with others.

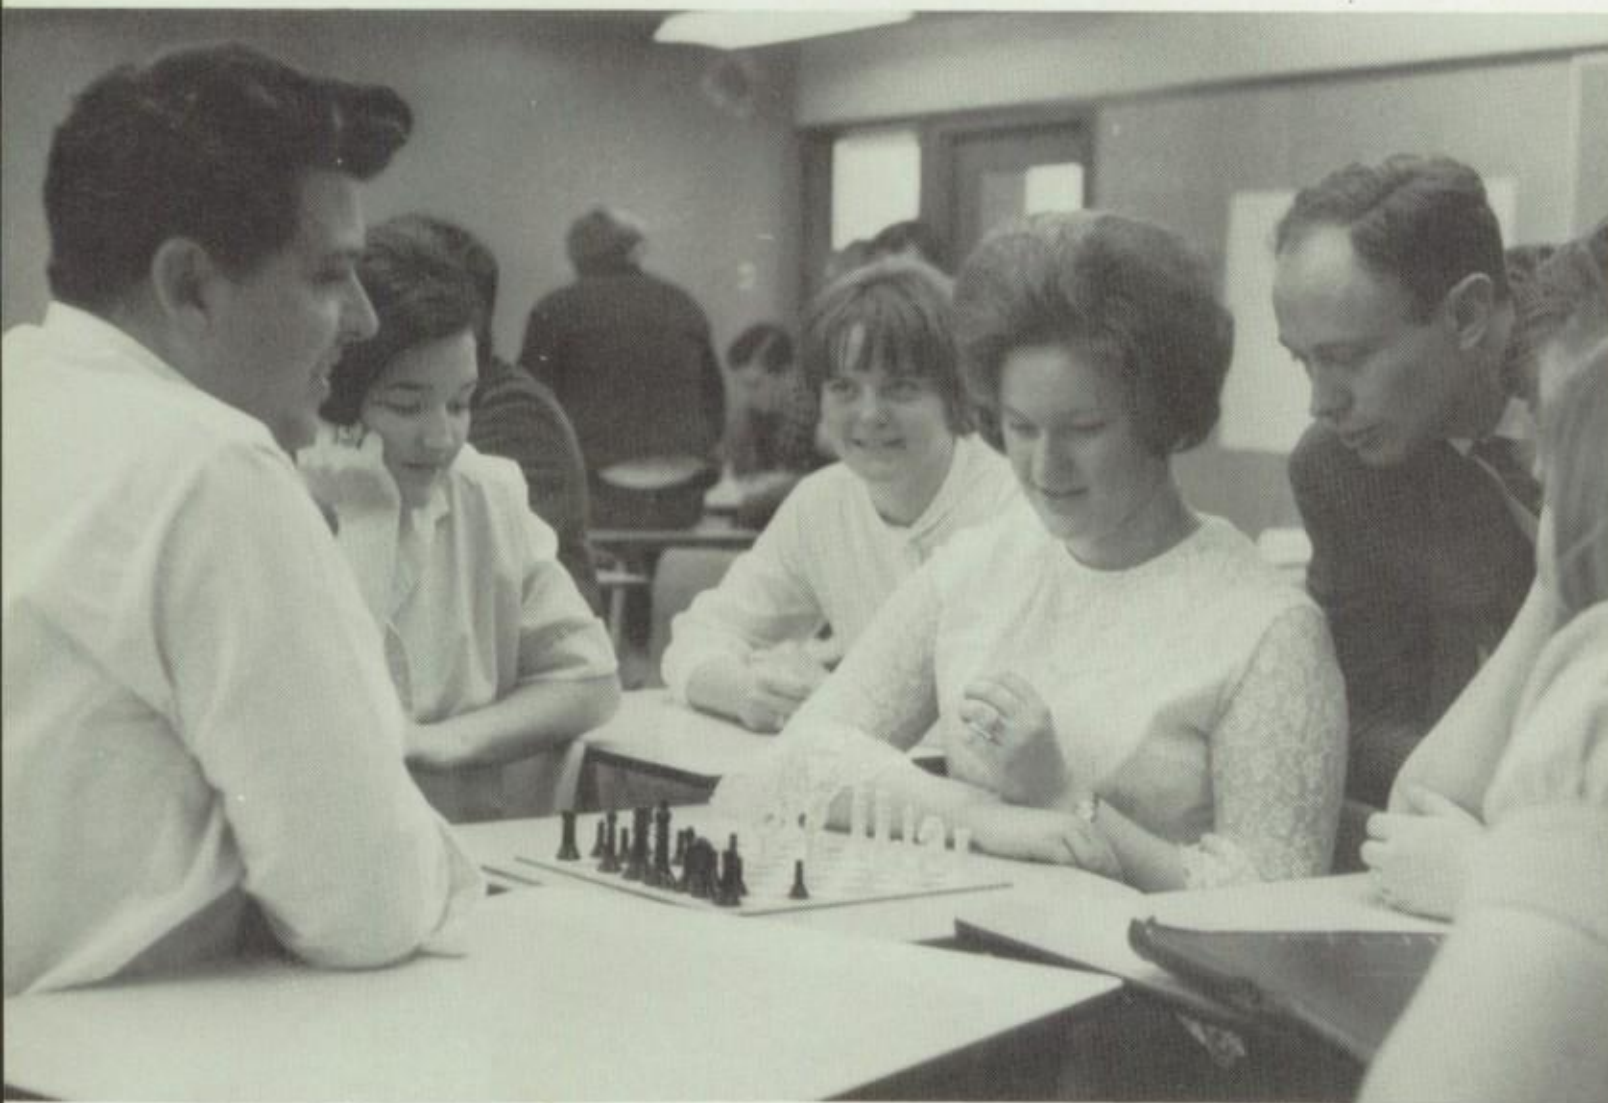

MaLinda Panse, seated, was chosen Girl of the Year. To her right is Cheryl Rambeck and to her left Ione Wutzke and Carol Ganz, who were also honored. All four were seniors and all were leaders in the school's activities. Their selection was announced during the evening when the Girls' League members honored their mothers.

Sue Carpenter modeled a paper streamer dress to lighten the mood of the May evening.

Bonnie Roberts wore her dress made in home economics class and modeled at the Mother-Daughter evening sponsored by the Girls' League. Theme for the event was "Up, Up, and Away". Bonnie is pictured on the stage which was decorated with colorful spring flowers made of paper and bright hued balloons. Girls in home economics classes helped serve refreshments.

Chess playing enthusiasts met frequently during the year to challenge each other and their instructors. In this picture Mr. Ernst Defenbach and Mr. Lloyd Shields gave Marge Lundry instructions about the game. Kibitzing were Suzie Foster, Suezanne Coke. Roger Ely was seated in the background puzzling out another problem of chess play. Ione Wutzke was the only officer named.

Mind Challenging Was Aim Of These Clubs

International Relations League met to elect officers but was unable to send a delegation to the state presentation this year. Suzie Foster was elected president; Nancy Martin, vice-president; Cindy Buhl, secretary-treasurer, and Linda Young, representative to the student council.

NHS Conducted Tapping Ceremony

Pinning pledge ribbons on the NHS neophytes was Donella Grimm. Those tapped for membership this year were Robin Caviness, Lynn Herbert, Teresa Meyer, Emma Robinson, Valerie Johnson, Steve Fuller, Bill Wilde, Carol Birkenfeld, Cathy Shirtcliff, Betty Kimble, Patricia Lundry, Jan Olsen, Pamela Onn, Carolee Rust, and Nancy Martin. Members pictured included Bob Proctor, Cindy Buhl, Debbie Rust, and Bill Christensen.

Bob Rowe was president of NHS. Officers with him were Cindy Buhl, treasurer; Judy Birkenfeld, secretary; and Steve Onn, vice-president.

Lettermen Initiated

Jim Gross, president of the Lettermen's Club, was pictured in front of the school with his executive board. To the left was Chris Dowd and Wayne Van Epps, and to the right were Mike Cyphert and Gary Martin. They made cedar chests, which were raffled during basketball season. Their week-long initiation was finalized in a Sunday "ceremony".

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were one of the couples seated at the head table at the banquet held in honor of the graduating class.

At The Banquet

The seniors were honored by the juniors with a banquet held at the Elks Lodge and a prom the following night.

At the banquet the class prophecy, which was written by several members of the junior class, was read. In charge of this very lovely banquet was Marge Lundry.

The prom followed the theme "In Groovy Motion." This dance was different than most as it was decorated psychedelically. A lowered net ceiling filled with balloons was the hit of the dance. Glass flowers and candles adorned the tables with psychedelic paper covering the walls. A fountain was featured in the courtyard. Nancy Hanna was prom chairman.

Waiting for the meal to start were Judy Pringle, Cheryl Rambeck, Sue Mulvane, Pat Lundry, and Lynn Murphy.

Putting ruffles around the tables took many helpers. They included Kristy Dixon, Pam Standefer, Carol Birkenfeld, Shelly DeGroodt, and Kit Chase with Debbie Smith supervising.

Nancy Hanna told Chris Winfrey, Mike Blanchard, and Bill Christensen just how the ceiling was to be hung.

Reigning over the 1968 Prom were Mike Cyphert and Judy Birkenfeld. Princes and princesses included Sue Mulvane, Ernie Graf, Donella Grimm, Mike Fisher, Bonnie Roberts, Bob Rowe, Ione Wutzke, and Bob Peterman. The crowning was handled by Nancy Hanna and Jim Aaronson with Cathy Shirtcliff presenting the flowers.

In Groovy Motion

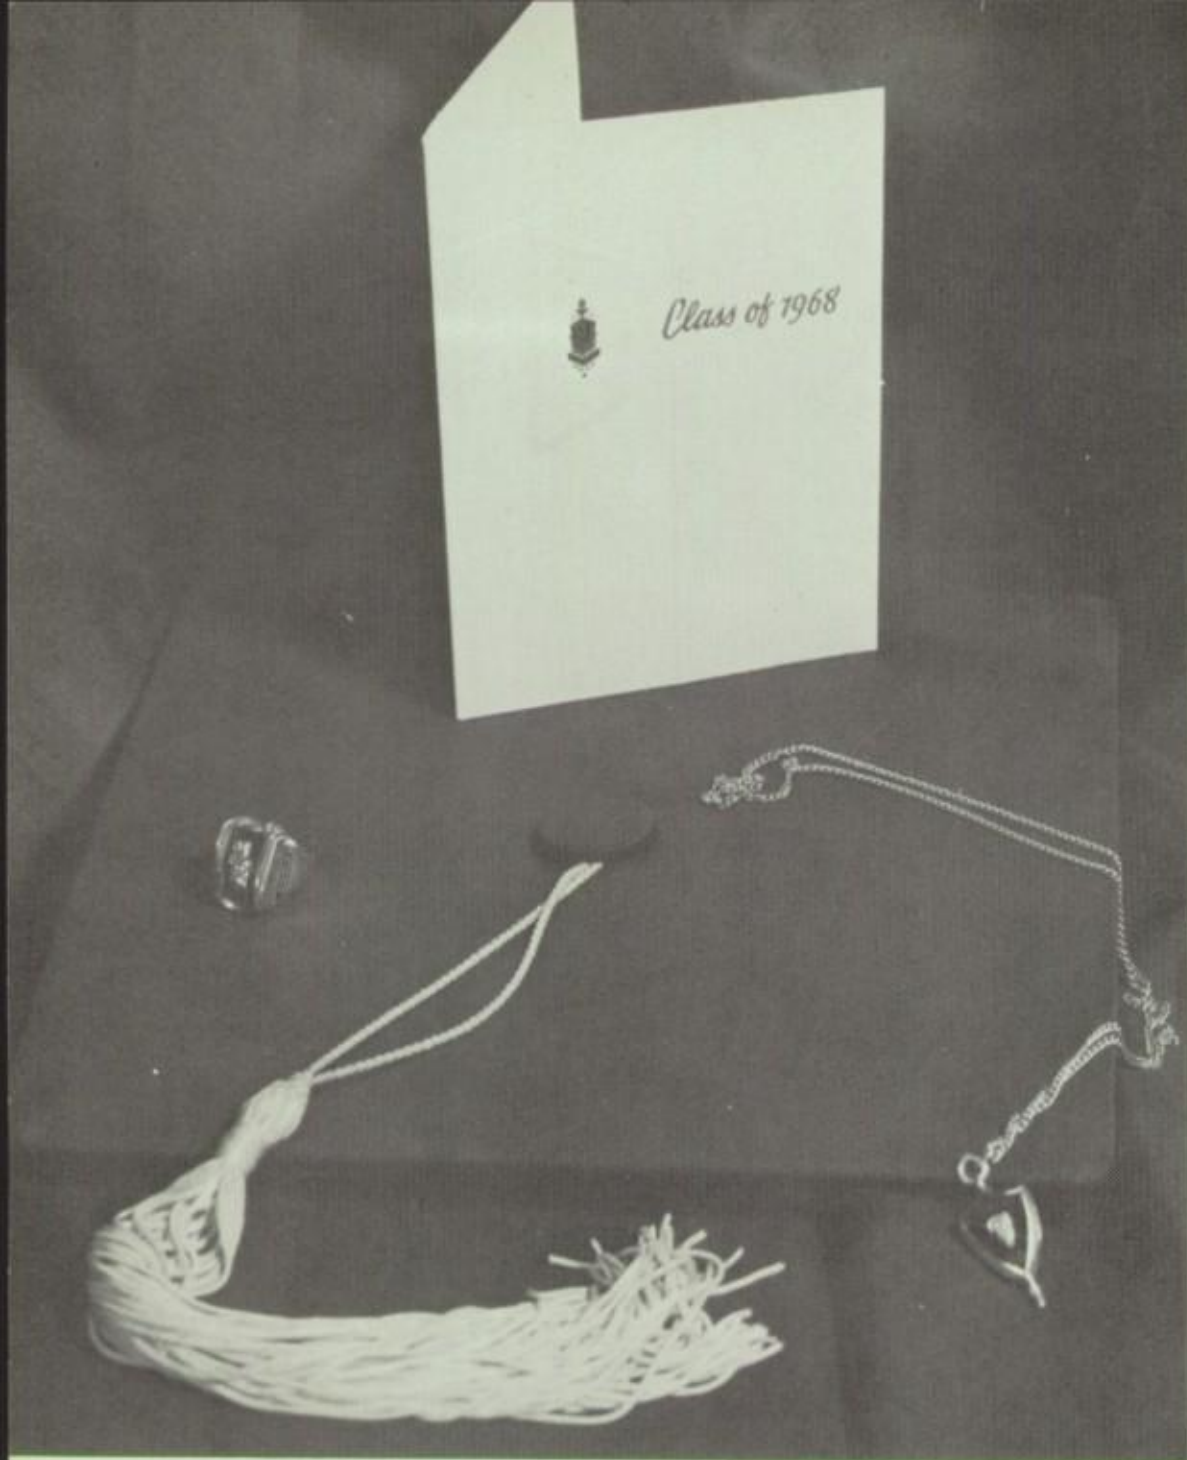

By the looks on their faces, Bill Ashbaugh, Harold Waltz, Janice Freamon, and Sharon Burns seemed to have enjoyed the Prom immensely.

Sandy Watson and Gordon Ethridge agreed that dancing to the music supplied by the "Impact Express" was great.

Seniors Looked To The Future

Being a member of the Class of 1968 has meant enthusiasm, the spirit of fun, ambition, disappointment, leadership, and loyalty.

From the homecoming float to the Senior Formal, members of the class have displayed a pride of ownership in doing the job well.

Enthusiasm and spirit marked the class' goal of obtaining the Sportsmanship Trophy. Disappointment was falling short of that goal by only 15 points in the last pep assembly.

Whether it be football, Singin' Set or Honor Society, seniors have actively supported the student activities as leaders, workers, and followers.

The minds of each senior is surely enriched with memories of unforgettable enjoyments. For our seniors have travelled from the Balboa Drags to Umpqua Lighthouse to Mount Ashland in search of fun and relaxation.

Being dismissed 5 minutes early for lunch each day, being honored by the juniors at a lovely banquet and prom, and being dismissed from school several days before graduation were just some of the senior privileges which helped the year fly swiftly by.

Work also added to the rapid passage of time. Term papers, notebooks, speeches, and reports were all a part of the busy schedules of seniors.

In addition, there were applications for jobs, scholarships, and colleges to prepare.

Seniors found it necessary to live not only in the present with school assignments and activities, but also in dreams of the future. Decisions had to be made. There were so many questions to answer. Where will I go? What shall I do?

And what does the future see for the Class of 1968? It sees many things, success and failure, happiness and sadness. But most of all it sees life.

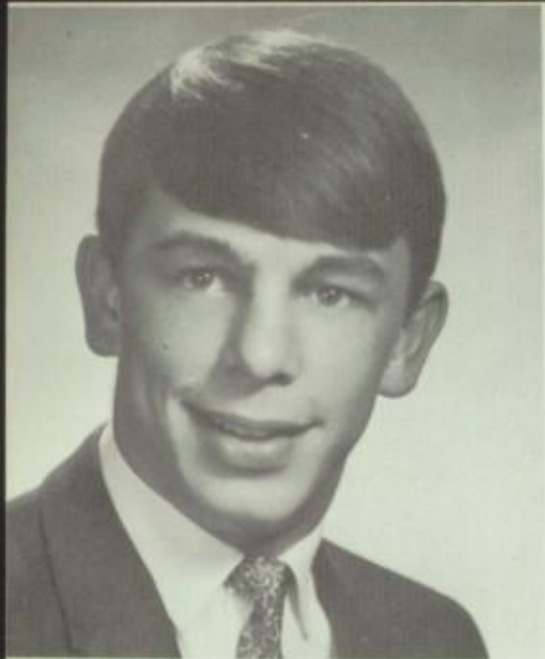

After four years of academic accomplishment, these seniors were the "Top Ten", one of the highest honors that SUHS bestowed upon its graduates. The two boys were Chris Dowd and Tim Powell. Behind them are Judy Birkenfeld, Carol Ganz, Janice Knudson, Kalene DeVore, Donella Grimm, Suzie Foster, Pat Lundry, and Bea Naylor. Chris and Carol represented the distinguished group at commencement when they gave speeches for the final ceremony in which all of the classmates met together as a class for the last time.

"BEST LOOKING" were Jim Gross and Cheryl Rambeck.

"MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT" were Randall Smith and Robin Caviness.

"MOST ATHLETIC" for the school were Mike Fisher and Nancy Richardson.

Seniors Chose Their 'Personalities'

"BEST ALL AROUND" were Bob Peterman and Carol Ganz.

"BEST BUILD" was Gary Martin and "BEST FIGURE" IN our school was Pam Onn.

They Mock Their Titles

"BEST LEADERS" in the school were Chris Dowd and Judy Birkenfeld.

"MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED" were Bob Rowe and Donella Grimm.

"BEST PERSONALITIES" were Steve Smith and Malinda Panse.

"CLASS CLOWNS" were Archie Hudleson and Ione Wutzke.

Seniors Through

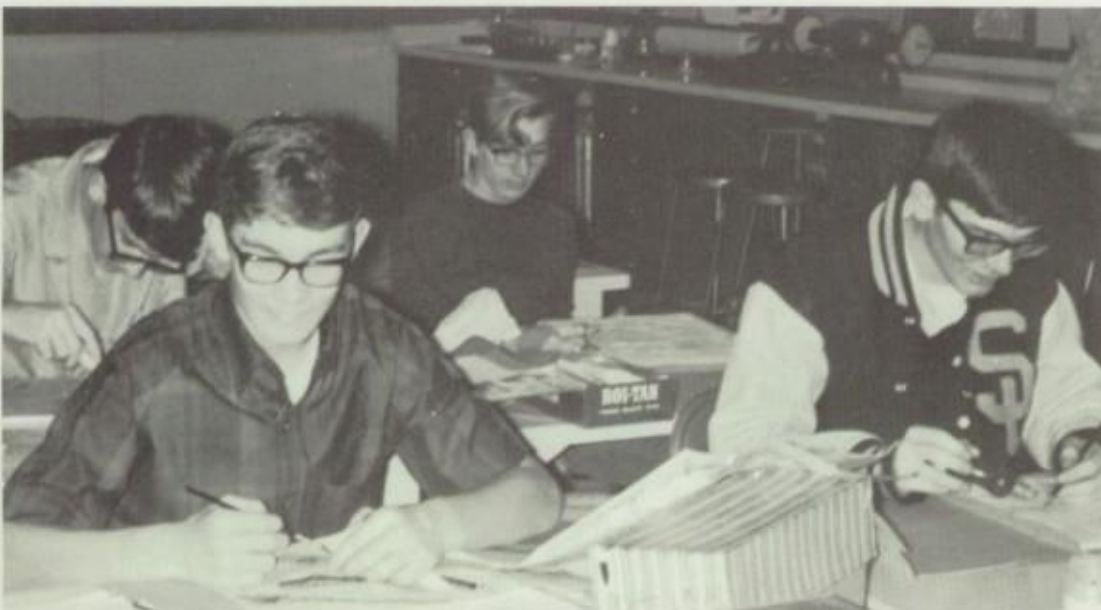

Queen Cheryl Rambeck and escort Gordon Ethridge rode the Senior float during halftime of the Homecoming game. The Senior float placed second in the competition.

Carol Ganz is seated with Santa at the Christmas parade. The band marched in this parade that announced the Christmas Season in Myrtle Creek.

Here's Judy Birkenfeld and Jerry Krause eating as usual. This time, though, it was for a good cause. The Pep Club was sponsoring a pre-game spaghetti feed.

The Art classes were involved in many projects through the year. In the spring they went to Eugene to visit art showings. Ernie Graf and Chris Dowd seem to be very interested in their projects.

The Year

The Senior boys enjoyed presenting skits for Pep Assemblies during basketball season. These were not only hilarious, but they added to the Senior's total points in class competition. Being edged out in the final week, the Seniors ended with second place. Thanks go to Ray Dean, Steve Peterman, Bob Peterman, Bruce Agee, Steve Briggs, Ernie Graf, and Bob Proctor (not shown) for their work in these skits.

Mr. Kline seems to have enjoyed "de-hairing" Cecil Flint.

"Yes, I am beautiful," says Nancy Richardson. Acting silly was always one of Nancy's greatest talents.

TB tests are a part of almost every Senior's life. Kalene DeVore, Miss Page, Miss Spencer, Steve Morgan, and David Dancer nervously awaited their turns.

The Class of 1968 was 124 strong at the beginning of the school year. At the close of the year it had dwindled to 111 members. The graduates included from Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 26, in the high school gym. After the Call to Worship and Invocation, the Concert Choir sang "With a Voice of Singing" and "The Messiah." The Reverend Donald Boldt's sermon urged the Seniors to be different, to stand alone. The service concluded with the graduates filing out to the music of the recessional played by Mrs. Lyle Fosmark.

Commencement exercises, Tuesday, May 28, also took place in the gym. Music by the band followed the invocation. Mr. Ellefson directed the band in "Antietam." The introduction of the Top Ten was followed by two of its members, Carol Ganz and Chris Dowd, giving speeches. Carol's speech covered the events of the year while Chris' dwelt on the future. Mr. R. D. Mahaffey from Linfield College was introduced by Superintendent Fluke. His speech, "A Lesson in Spelling" was on life and the four ways it could be lived, I, if, lie, and life. Scholarships were presented; and then the awaited event came, the presentation of the diplomas. How wonderful it was to receive them at last.

Girls in shorthand classes visited the Rogue Valley date processing center in Medford. Among those taking the trip were Kathy Sproul, Judy Bell, Susan Hill, and Diane Foshaug.

Jerry and Nona Warren, pictured in front of their Myrtle Creek studio, did much of the photography work for the annual. They always said "yes" when the annual staff members asked them to take pictures of student activity. Jerry came out to school for the ball games, track, dances, individual pictures, or for whatever else he was called upon to do to photograph our students. Our sincerest thanks to you, Jerry and Nona.

To The Very End . . .

Judy Birkenfeld, editor of the annual, devoted a great deal of her time to make this annual a memorable one.

Judy Birkenfeld, the editor of the Lance, brought her ability for leadership, planning, and perseverance to the annual, working day after day to complete the layouts and to make the pages of the Lance best represent the students and their school.

As many as 30 students devoted their time to the production of the annual this year. Although for most this was a new experience, they tried their best to make this book reflect life at South Umpqua High School. It has its strengths and its weaknesses, but most of all it tells about the school year.

Judy Brooks, business manager, also worked hard on page layouts.

The following students worked with Judy to produce this year's annual.
